

President Biden signed the PPP Extension Act of 2021 today, moving the Paycheck Protection Program deadline back another two months to May 31st. There will be an additional 30-day period for the SBA to process applications that are still pending after May 31st.