

The Paycheck Protection Program Liquidity Facility has been extended for a final time from June 30, 2021, to July 30, 2021, to allow additional processing time for banks to pledge PPP loans to their respective Reserve Banks. Banks wishing to pledge PPP loans are encouraged to submit necessary documentation prior to July 30, 2021, to ensure timely processing.

You can read the press release here. Federal Reserve Board - Federal Reserve Board announces it will extend for a final time its Paycheck Protection Program Liquidity Facility, or PPPLF, by an additional month to July 30, 2021